1 BACKGROUND AND INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this handbook is to present members active as cinematographers and camera operators with information on professional designations awarded by the Southern African Communications Industries Association (SACIA) in alliance with the SA Society of Cinematographers.

The various aspects of membership include:

- certification programmes offered by the SASC and SACIA
- SACIA code of professional conduct
- disciplinary process under the code of conduct
- continuing professional development (CPD)

1.1 Vision

In December 2016 the South African Society of Cinematographers (SASC) was recognised as an affiliate body by the Southern African Communication Industries Association (SACIA). In terms of this affiliate agreement, individual members of SASC are eligible to apply for the SACIA CertBCT designations registered with SAQA. SACIA grant a reduction in the annual membership fee payable by certified members who are also members of SASC. The objective of both bodies is to promote the adoption of professional standards and ethical business practices within the animation community, and to recognise excellence in all aspects of our profession.

1.2 Mission

SASC and SACIA aim to:

- promote the professionalization of the industry through the education, training and development of individual members
- present industry specific training programmes, conferences and workshops
- foster closer relationships between learning centres, broadcasters, communications professionals and AV professionals within the region
- endorse appropriate trade shows and facilitate travel packages to international events
- negotiate preferential services for the benefit of members – including medical benefits, insurance and savings plans
- develop an industry-specific bursary programmes and promote the development of the broadcast and pro-AV industry in the region
- organise, support, promote or participate in award functions, ceremonies and events that encourage excellence in communications, broadcasting and the professional AV industry
- promote diversity and transformation in such a manner as to ensure that the Association reflects the population demographics of South Africa

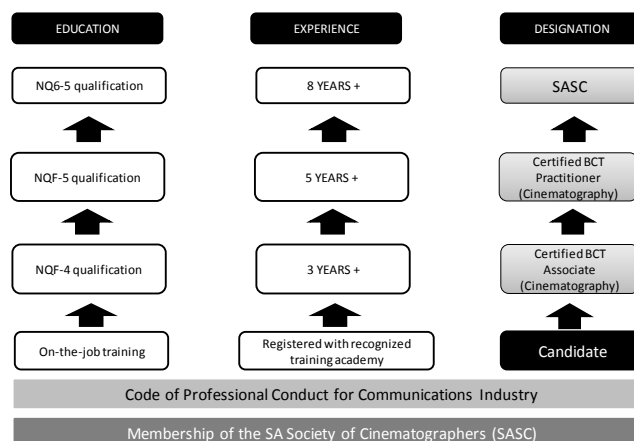

1.3 Values

The values that underpin professional conduct within the animation industry include:

- Honour
- Integrity
- Reliability
- Honesty
- Accuracy

2 Professional Recognition Framework

The professional recognition framework supports the objectives of both SASC and SACIA in professionalization of the animation industry.

2.1 Professional Designations and Certifications

Different types of professional designations are offered by SACIA, including the Associate and Practitioner CertBCT designations, as well as the established SASC acronym

- Certified BCT Associate (Cinematography)
- Certified BCT Practitioner (Cinematography)
- SASC acronym

Each of these designations is awarded through an assessment of the individual's good standing, educational qualifications and experience within the industry.

Each designation is defined by different requirements. These are included as the guiding principles against which the designations are awarded. This section also provides an overview of the qualifying criteria for each designation, the process used by SACIA to award the designation, the requirements to maintaining the designation and the benefits of being awarded the designation. It is important to note that Professional designations are awarded at the discretion of the SACIA board, who will evaluate both the breadth and depth of a candidate's skillset.

1. A candidate with broad knowledge should demonstrate minimum required knowledge/ skill to comply with standards. In general, work with low level of complexity is performed. The individual can work on his/her own but requires guidance with more complex situations.
2. A candidate with comprehensive knowledge should demonstrate more than average knowledge/ skill in areas of specialization. He/she should be able to perform more complex assignments without supervision.
3. A candidate with deep knowledge should demonstrate extended/ progressed knowledge/ skill in specialised areas that usually comes with years of experience.

2.2.1 Certified BCT Associate

Description

An individual applying for the CertBCT Assoc (Cinematography) should be able to demonstrate a broad understanding of the content production process, and a comprehensive understanding of the art and craft of cinematography in the film/ video environment.

2.2.2 Certified BCT Practitioner

Description

An individual applying for the CertBCT Pract (Cinematography) should be able to demonstrate a comprehensive understanding of the content production process, and an in-depth understanding of the art and craft of cinematography in the film/ video environment.

Benefits

Use the designatory letters for the Certified Broadcasting Technology Practitioner (CertBCT Prac) behind their name

Offer employers and colleagues assurance of commitment to the film and video industry

Be listed on the National Register for SACIA Certified Associates, Practitioners and Professionals

Qualifying criteria

Applicants must have:

- completed 5 years of industry related experience
- have gained an NQF registered qualification at NQF 5 or equivalent
- Provide a portfolio of evidence demonstrating their comprehensive understanding of the art and craft applied by cinematographers in the film and video industry.
- Gained an endorsement from two people of good standing within the film and video industry

Application Process

The Application Form is completed and submitted to SACIA for processing, together with the required supporting documentation. This includes the registration fee.

Candidates are notified of outcome of evaluation

Successful candidates are Certified and their name is added to National Register for SACIA Certified BCT Professionals

Continuing professional development (CPD) requirements

Designated members are required to:

- maintain annual membership of SACIA or any recognised affiliate body
- pay an annual certification fee to SACIA
- subscribe to the SACIA code of professional conduct
- comply with the CPD requirements as stipulated by SACIA

2.2.3 SASC

Description

An individual applying for the SASC acronym should be able to demonstrate a deep understanding of the entire content production process, including an in-depth understanding of the management and administration systems that apply to cinematography. The candidate should also demonstrate an in-depth understanding of the art and craft of cinematography in the film/ video environment.

Benefits

Use the designatory letters SASC behind their name

Offer employers and colleagues assurance of commitment to the film and video industry

Be listed on the National Register for SACIA Certified Associates, Practitioners and Professionals

Qualifying criteria

Applicants must have:

- completed at least 8 years of industry related experience
- have gained an NQF registered qualification at NQF 6 or equivalent
- Provide a portfolio of evidence demonstrating their in-depth understanding of the art and craft of cinematography in the film/ video environment.
- Gained an endorsement from three people of good standing within the film and video industry

Application Process

The Application Form is completed and submitted to SACIA for processing, together with the required supporting documentation. This includes the registration fee.

Candidates are notified of outcome of evaluation

Successful candidates are Certified and their name is added to National Register for SACIA Certified BCT Professionals

Continuing professional development (CPD) requirements

Designated members are required to:

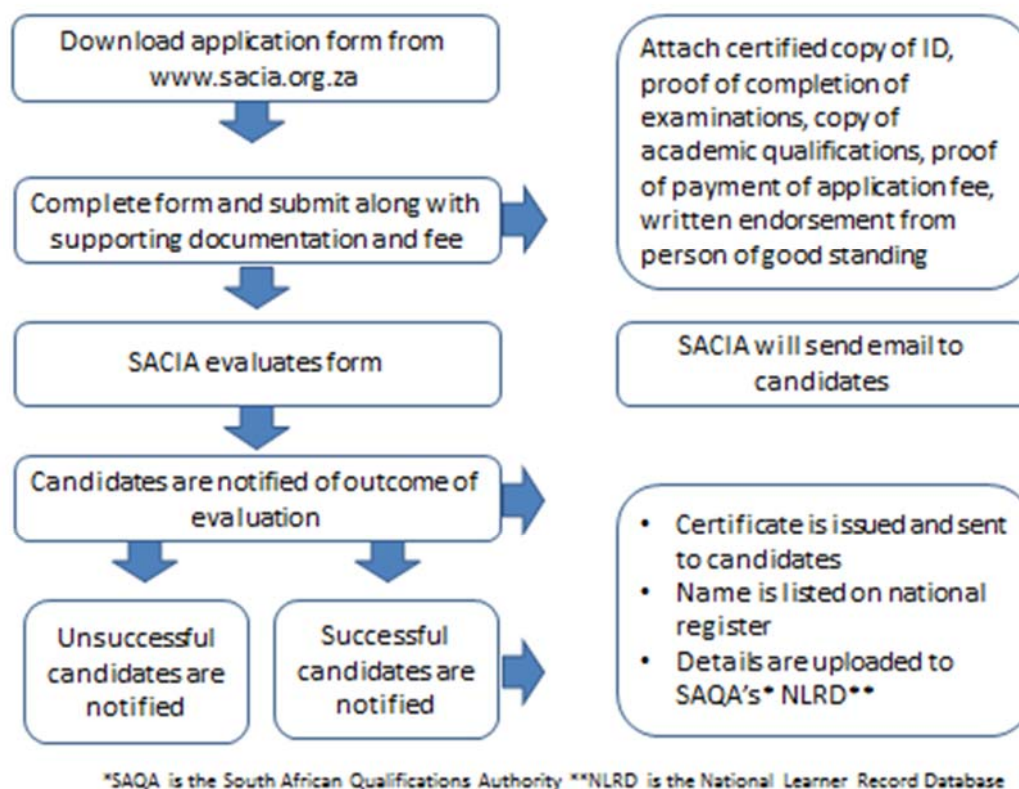

- maintain annual membership of SASC
- pay an annual certification fee to SACIA
- subscribe to the SACIA code of professional conduct
- comply with the CPD requirements as stipulated by SACIA

It is important to note that:

- Professional designations are awarded at the discretion of the SACIA board;
- SACIA reserves the right to check the records of applicants as part of the application process;
- Certificates issued by SACIA remain the property of SACIA and must be returned should the individual for any reason lose their status as designee.
- In instances where a candidate does not hold an appropriate qualification, recognition of workplace learning and extended work experience will be considered in an evaluation.

2.3 Application Process

The application process is similar for all the SACIA professional designations:

The Application Form is completed and submitted to SACIA for processing, together with the required supporting documentation. This includes proof of membership of SASC and the required certification fee.

Candidates are notified of outcome of evaluation. Certification fee¹ needs to be paid before the certificate can be issued.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) assessment is used to award the designation. This occurs at two levels:

- Qualification - an RPL assessment is applied to evaluate the equivalence of the competence of an individual who might not have the required qualification. This assessment is currently a desktop evaluation that is performed for the candidate to access the certification process and does not result in the awarding of an NQF registered qualification; and,

- Evaluation of application – the methodology used to evaluate an application is aligned to RPL practices and takes formal, informal and non-formal learning into consideration when awarding the designation.

Successful candidates are certified and their name is added to the SACIA National Register of Certified Associates, Practitioners and Professionals in AV and BCT².

2.4 SACIA Code of Professional Conduct

All certified members must adhere to the SACIA Code of Professional Conduct³.

2.4.1 Declaration

This requires that a declaration be signed and submitted annually to SACIA together with membership renewal.

2.4.2 Disciplinary Process

The code of conduct is applicable to all individual members of SACIA. The code of conduct requires the members who are found guilty of misconduct under this code to present their case to the Disciplinary Committee. The committee is chaired by SACIA's legal counsel and the disciplinary process is outlined in the Disciplinary Code and Procedures document that is available as a download from the SACIA website.

² B - National Register for SACIA Certified Associates, Practitioners and Professionals.

³ C - SACIA Code of Conduct

A summary of the process used to manage allegations of misconduct is presented in the figure below:

Penalties can include any one of the following:

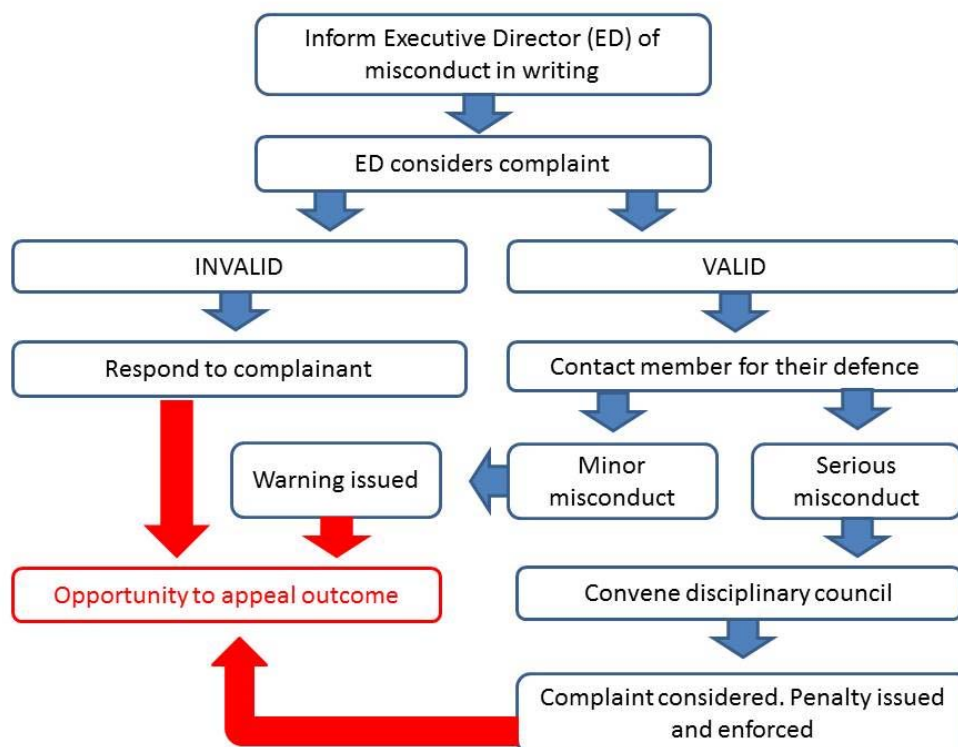

- Suspension from membership
- Revoke designation
- Issue fine
- Issue warning

However, the Disciplinary Council reserves the right to issue a penalty that adheres to the seriousness of the case.

3 Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

Members of SACIA and SASC who have been awarded a professional designation are required to comply with the requirements for continuing professional development (CPD) set out in this section of the Handbook.

Everyone is required to submit a declaration of the undertaking to participate in CPD annually. However, SACIA only requires the submission of a CPD record card once every 3 years. This is part of the re-certification process and failure to submit the CPD record card could result in the revoking of your status as certified member.

3.1 CPD requirements

Each designee is required to acquire a total of 70 points in the three-year period, as determined by the date of award of the professional designation.

CPD points are awarded based on relevant content bearing activity in which the candidate has participated. Usually 1 CPD point is awarded for every hour of activity. Where this is not so, a note has been added to the description of activities.

It is also important to note that CPD points can only be awarded to activities completed within the CPD period. For instance, a designee who needs to report on CPD activities during the period 1 March 2016 – 28 Feb 2019, cannot claim points for workshops attended before 1 March 2016.

3.2 Types of CPD activities

A variety of activities make up the CPD programme and include:

Employment Max: 18 CPD points	This is calculated at 6 points per year of relevant employment within the industry. Employment that is not relevant to the designation will not be considered part of the CPD programme.
Training attended or presented Max: 60 CPD points	A designee is awarded CPD points based on relevant training attended, or training offered in their capacity as facilitator or trainer. CPD points are allocated as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 1 hour – 1 CPD point • ½ day – 4 CPD points • full day – 8 CPD points • 2 days or more – maximum of 16 CPD points CPD points are awarded to all relevant training attended by the designee. However, 50 of the CPD points claimed for training need to be gained through participation in SACIA validated training programmes. Trainers or facilitators delivering a SACIA validated CPD course will earn 2 CPD credits per course hour delivered. Trainers can only claim one delivery per course within a six-month period, with a maximum 50 CPD credits claimed within an evaluation period.
Publications, books and articles Max: 5 CPD points	1 CPD point is awarded for relevant articles published in industry related publications. CPD points are also allocated to the reading of industry related material. ½ CPD point is allocated per 2 hours of reading time. CPD points can also be awarded for books written. Special application needs to be made for CPD points in this instance.
Conferences or seminars or workshops Max: 10 CPD points	2 CPD points are allocated per participation in relevant industry conferences, association events, workshops or seminars. However, SACIA may award specific CPD points for specific events.
Mentoring and coaching Max: 20 CPD points	A designee can participate as a mentor or mentee in a formal mentoring or coaching process. Evidence of meetings, communications and telephone logs need to be included in the CPD report to validate claims. 1 CPD point can be claimed for every content-bearing hour of engagement.
Volunteer activities Max: 20 points	SACIA volunteers serving on a Council, Task Group or Board will earn 1 CPD credit for every hour of voluntary service

3.3 Recording of CPD activities

The *SACIA CPD record card*⁴ is used to record CPD activities. This should be kept up to date by the designee. The CPD record card should also be accompanied by documentation validating the activities included in the record card.

Documentation includes

- confirmation of participation in events – such as certificates of attendance or emails confirming attendance
- confirmation of presentations – such as emails from the organizers thanking the presenter
- letter of employment or letter from employer confirming employment status
- copies of articles published
- letter from mentor or mentee confirming mentoring relationship

3.4 CPD record card submissions

Submissions are made on the dates specified by SACIA. Dates are communicated to designees during the CPD period. These submissions are made electronically via email to cpd@sacia.org.za.

ANNEXURE C: SACIA Code of Professional Conduct

Members of SACIA who are practitioners and professionals practicing in the broadcast, communications and professional AV industry are required to subscribe to the code of professional conduct.

Five values underpin this code, namely:

Honour	Showing respect for myself, my organisation, my industry and the community of clients that I serve by behaving in a manner that reflects favourably on my profession. Acting above reproach. Avoiding compromise of professional judgement by conflicts of interest.
Integrity	Acting with honesty and openness. Displaying trustworthiness. Showing consistent good behaviour over time. Ensuring that my words and actions correspond.
Reliability	Undertaking what I am competent to do and fulfilling commitments that I have made to my organisation, my industry and the community of clients that I serve
Honesty	Being truthful and accurate when executing my job even when it sometimes might be difficult. Not misrepresenting my own or my associate's academic or professional qualifications. Only undertaking assignments that I am competent to perform by way of my education, training and experience.
Accuracy	Ensuring that what I say, do and write are correct and reflect the information that is required to complete the job. Where this is not possible, ensuring that my organisation or my client understand the factors that could influence the accuracy of the information I have provided.

SACIA identifies that a practitioner interacts with various stakeholders when delivering their services. To this end, it is important that professional conduct be upheld when engaging with colleagues, peers, employers as well as industry role-players. To this end, a practitioner needs to uphold certain principles when practicing in this industry, namely:

Avoiding conflict of interest	This means understanding when a conflict of interest arises and speaking up to the parties present about the possible conflict to ensure that my integrity and honesty are not brought into question. This includes opportunities when I might be given information that I could use to my own advantage, but that could undermine my integrity and honesty.
Building and enhancing relationships	When acting in the best interest of my client, my focus is on building and enhancing long term relationships that are built on trustworthiness and reliability.

Upholding safety, health and welfare of the public As a competent practitioner who is proficient in what I do, I have the required insight and understanding into the laws, codes and principles governing safety, health and welfare of the public within my area of responsibility. I therefore ensure that the work I complete is compliant with these laws, codes and principles to ensure the well-being of my client, as well as the public that I affect.

Remaining in good standing As a practitioner in this industry, I need to remain in good standing in terms of the laws governing South Africa. I also need to ensure that I abide by the codes set out by international counterparts within this industry.

Finally, it is important that I realize that the certificates, logos and marks entrusted to me as a member of SACIA remain their property. Should, for any reason, our relationship be terminated, I am responsible to return this property to their care.

I, _____ (full name) (ID No.: _____)
do hereby agree to abide by the SACIA Code of Professional Conduct.
